

CA Inter CMA - Version 3 Batch

Chapter 6 : Cost Sheet : Q. 19 - Page 197

Query : Sir, there is a minor error in your PPT presentation of the answer.

The correct total of Direct Expenses to the outer column should be Rs. 18,94,600.

You have wrongly written it as Rs. 19,94,600.

Solution :

Yes, your observation is correct.

It shows that you are studying the subject carefully. Congratulations !

There is a typing error in the PPT presentation.

However, on calculator I had done is correctly and hence the total of Prime cost is correct.

Remaining all the totals are also correct.
